The Terrible Vacation in Thailand

I planned a vacation to Thailand with my friends. At first, they caused so many problems that I thought they didn't want to go with me. We had trouble with flights, hotel bookings, and even our travel plans. I worked hard to fix all these problems, and finally, we went on the trip together.

But things did not get any better. My friends were such stingy people that they didn't want to pay for anything. I ended up paying for so many things myself, which was so annoying.

The vacation was such a disappointment. My friends were so noisy and so loud that I couldn't relax. They also snored so loudly at night that I couldn't fall sleep. I ended up going to the beach and exploring the city all by myself, which was so lonely.

One night, we had to stay in a tiny room together. The room was so hot that we were sweating all the time because there was no air conditioning. Plus, there were so many mosquitoes that kept biting us all night. It was such a terrible night.

On top of everything, we got robbed. It was such an unlucky trip and such a terrible experience. Everything went wrong, and I wished I had never gone.
